Section 3 - People employed to work on the holding

Which of the following types of worker(s) have you employed in the previous 12 months?

Regular

These would be people employed on the holding throughout the year and paid a wage or salary. It may be there are periods where there is little or no work for them and for which they do not work and are not paid. However, the general expectation is that they would return (or be replaced) when the work picked up.

NA62 Yes  1 No  2

If you ticked 'YES' to the question above, please complete the column(s) at the bottom of this page.

If you ticked 'NO', please see if the Non-regular Workers section applies to you as well then go to Page 7.

Non-regular

People employed on a short-term basis to carry out a specific task (e.g. shearing, hedge cutting) or to undertake seasonal work (e.g lambing, fruit picking)

NA63 Yes  1 No  2

If you ticked 'YES' to the question above, please complete Page 7.

If you ticked 'NO', please go to Page 8 but see if the Regular Workers section applies also to you.

*If you have employed anyone in the previous 12 months and are not sure how they should be classified, or require continuation sheets for more workers please contact our Helpline.

For the purposes of this form we would include non-regular workers in one of two categories. These are casual workers and contract workers.

The two columns below refer to each. Please read the descriptions of each, decide if you have employed any such workers in the previous 12 months and complete the appropriate questions. If you are not sure how to clarify any worker please contact our helpline (details on the front page )

Casual

Casual work: people who are taken on to undertake additional duties during busier times of the year. Generally this would act as a temporary job, perhaps in the summer before returning to full-time education. Casual work would include general farm duties and odd jobs to assist the regular work force during these busy periods.

NA64 Yes  1 No  2

If you ticked 'YES' to the question above, please complete the box(es) at the bottom of this page.

If you ticked 'NO', please see if the Contract Workers section applies to you as well then go to Page 8.
